FIRST DAY-MORNING SESSION.

READING, Pa., October 1, 1919.

The one hundred and twentieth session of the East Pennsylvania annual conference, Church of the United Brethren in Christ, met in the Salem church, Reading, Pa., on the above date at ten o'clock.

The Bishop of the East District, the Reverend William M. Bell, D.D., LL.D., called the session to order, and, reading from the Gospel according to St. Mark, the sixth chapter, commented on the passage as illustrating "The Functioning of the Church." The bishop led in prayer.

The roll was called. During the calling of the names of the deceased members the conference stood in silent recognition of their unforgotten fellowship in service.

The Reverend Morris E. Swartz, executive secretary of the Inter-church Federation of Pennsylvania, addressed the conference.

The bar of the conference was limited to the seats within the main room of the church. Miss Ruth Buddinger, daughter of the pastor of Salem church, was appointed the official page for the conference.

The following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the routine hearing of pastors' reports, one by one, be dispensed with, and that pastors and delegates of charges reporting deficits meet with the Finance committee for conference about the matter, and that said committee report, its conclusions and recommendations to this body, and that the names and characters of all employed ministers against whom no charges exist or are preferred be passed with the presentation of their reports to the conference.

All visiting members of United Brethren conferences were granted advisory seats. During the various sessions the following were present: J. W. Owen, associate editor of the Sunday School literature; W. R. Funk, agent of the United Brethren publishing interests; C. W. Brewbaker, secretary of the Sunday School Board; President J. P. Landls, Bonebrake Theological Seminary; G. D. Gossard, President of Lebanon Valley College; S. S. Hough, Secretary Board of Administration; J. S. Innerst, Missionary under appointment to China.

The following Preamble and Resolution relative to the sale of a lot of ground, with the buildings thereon, situated at the N. W. Corner of Fifth and Spring streets, in the City of Reading, Berks County, Pa., was also adopted:

PREAMBLE AND RESOLUTION.

WHEREAS, the East Pennsylvania Annual Conference of the Church of the United Brethren in Christ, by a Board of Trustees, of the (formerly) Otterbein United Brethren Church in Chrlst, of Reading, Pa., is the owner in fee of a certain lot or piece of ground, with the buildings thereon erected, situated on the Northwest corner of Fifth and Spring Streets, Reading, Pa.

AND WHEREAS, by appropriate action, on October 2-7, 1912, said East Pennsylvania Annual Conference in its regular annual sessions assembled at Ephrata, Pa., merged said Otterbein United Brethren Church with the Memorial Church of Reading, Pa., and ordered and directed that, said united churches and congregations should be known as The Reading Trinity Church;

AND WHEREAS, the Board of Trustees of said Trinity Church, as now constituted, consists of the following members, viz., Robert B. Kern, W. D. B. Spatz, Walter C. Lesly, William E. Taylor, Joseph H. Schoffstall, Harry A. Johnson, and Elmer C. Smith, who by an Article of Agreement made and entered into on the 8th day of August, 1919, sold said lot of ground to William E. Fisher, for the consideration of Ten Thousand Dollars.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED; That said Board of Trustees be and are authorized hereby to sign, seal, execute and deliver a good and lawful deed in fee simple to sald William E. Fisher, his heirs and assigns for the consideration aforesaid, and that their action in so doing, is hereby ratified and confirmed with the same force and effect as though the said East Pennsylvania Annual Conference had duly adopted Resolutions prior thereto authorizing the same and directing the proper officers to execute and deliver under seal of said Corporation, the necessary deed or conveyance to the said William E. Fisher, his heirs and assigns forever.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that the above Resolution was duly adopted at a regular meeting of the East Pennsylvania Annual Conference of the Church of the United Brethren in Christ held at Reading, Fa., on the 1st day of October, A. D. 1919, at which a quorum was present and voting.

(Seal) Signed,Secretary.

Following announcements the conference adjourned. Benediction by J. M. Walters.

FIRST DAY-AFTERNOON SESSION.

The first day afternoon session opened at two o'clock. J. B. Funk read from the fifteenth chapter of St. John, and O. L. Mease and I. M. Groff led in prayer.

The Superintendent, S. C. Enck, read his second annual report. It was adopted and is as follows:

SECOND ANNUAL REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE SUPERINTENDENT.

To the Presiding Bishop and members of the One Hundred and Twentieth Annual Session of East Pennsylvania Annual Conference, Church of the United Brethren in Christ. Greeting.

Dear Brethren: The last and one hundred and nineteenth session of East Pennsylvania Annual Conference closed rather abruptly on account of the probable quarantine due to the Spanish Influenza. It did not adjourn any too soon for I think I am safe in stating that at least fifty per cent, of the ministers and lay delegates took sick, some left the sessions of conference sick, others arrived home only to take their beds. A number were seriously ill for several weeks. However I am pleased to state that all of the ministers recovered.

I am sorry to report that one of the lay delegates, Bro. R. A. Parks, of Allentown Sixth St. Church, who was a regular attendant of conference for a number of years ond who is well remembered on account of his jovial and pleasing disposition, left conference Saturday noon wishing everybody well and seemingly in the best of health, but in less than a week the grave claimed his body and his soul entered the haven of eternal rest.

For a period of one month, in some sections longer, the churches were absolutely closed for services of any kind. In some sections there was a second quarantine.

Never were the pastors more anxious to resume their work than when the churches were reopened for services. Both pastors and people entered upon the work with renewed vigor and seemingly no ill effects resulted from the closing of the churches.

However, this might be said, that during the quarantine the pastors who were physically able never worked harder and did more heroic work in visiting the sick, comforting the bereaved, holding funeral services, sometimes three in one day, doing the work of trained nurses, as well as assisting the undertakers in various ways. They were angels of mercy and performed a noble work, undoubtedly precious seed was sown, and the great future only will reveal the precious results.

We are indeed very happy to have with us our much beloved Bishop Beil who during the year was very near to the brink, but through the persistent efforts of a skilled surgeon and the united prayers of a devoted people, God saw fit to answer the fervent petitions of the righteous, and extended the fruitful life of one of the great leaders of the Church.

Deaths ...

Two of our brethren in the active ministry answered to the final roll call.

Rev. L. R. Kramer who served Cressona very acceptably for a number of years, and who was unable to attend the last sessions of conference on account of sickness, was called to his final reward on January first, 1919. He was a faithful, conscientious, devoted servant of the Lord.

. Rev. George Richter will read the memoir.

Rev. Leroy Waiters was appointed to fill the vacancy, who at once took to the work and had a very successful revival. His work was highly appreciated. He left for Bonebrake Seminary where he will pursue his studies.

Rev. I. H. Albright, Ph.D., of Lebanon Pleasant Hill, died in the harness. He lectured and preached several times during Passion week, and preached three times on Easter, and on the same day celebrated a family reunion, when all of the children were home. The following Monday, April 21st, 1919, while working in his garden he fell ever and was gone. He was a good preacher, a successful pastor, the conference historian, and greatly loved by his brethren.

Rev. M. H. Jones will read the memoir.

Rev. Thomas Garland was appointed to fill the vacancy and did it to the satisfaction of the charge.

Resignations

Annual conference had adjourned but a week when the resignation of August Williams who ras appointed to Birdsboro reached the superintendent. The resignation was accepted and Rev. M. L. Swanger, a student of Lebanon Valley College, was appointed. He served the charge until the latter part of February when, on account of arduous work at school, he resigned Birdsboro but expressed a desire to continue Elverson. The resignation in part was accepted and Rev. J. C. H. Light of Reading was appointed to Birdsboro to the great delight and satisfaction of the people. I only learned through disinterested parties in the month of August that Elverson was not served. I was under the impression all the time that Rev. Swanger was serving the appointment. Neither the people of Elverson nor Rev. Swanger ever informed me.

Rev. E. F. Castetter who was appointed to Hillsdale charge resigned Nov. 18th on account of arduous duties at college, it being his senior year. Rev. H. C. Kottler was appointed to fill the vacancy.

Rev. George Rothermel appointed to Lykens circuit resigned March 28th on account of ill health and Rev. A. E. Shroyer, D.D., was appointed to fill the vacancy.

Licensed to Preach the Gospel.

The following men complied with the requirements of the discipline and were carefully examined and by their respective quarterly conferences were granted license to preach:

Albert J. D. Shoemaker of Allentown Sixth St. Church, Elias D. Bressler of Aven, Heber Runk Mutch of Ephrata, D. F. Mowery of Harrisburg Otterbein, Russell Packer of Penbrook, Milliard M. Lewis of Shamokin first, V. D. Grubb of Birdsboro, A. K. Brubaker presented his license and transfer from the Lancaster Ave. M. E. Church to Otterbein Church at Lancaster which was a counted. Otterbein Church at Lancaster which was accepted.

Applicants for License to Preach.

. The following brethren, Leroy Walters of Sunbury, and W. D. Krick of Reading Salem, were by their respective quarterly conferences recommended for license to preach the Gospel. To the best of my knowledge they have met the requirements as per disci-

Mrs. Belle O. Richie, who completed her course of study at Bonebrake Seminary as deaconess, was recommended by the quarterly conference of Allentown Linden St. to annual conference for ordination as a deaconess.

Improvements.

In many respects this is the banner year for East Pennsylvania conference. From a financial standpoint it has no peer. The increase in pastors' salaries amounted to $12,300. Seventy-five appointments raised their pastor's salary anywhere from fifty to five hundred dollars. Fifteen appointments remained the same as last year. One, a student appointment made a slight decrease student appointment, made a slight decrease.

There are thirteen student and supply appointments that pay below the the minimum, since the pastors devote only part time. Twenty-one appointments pay from eight hundred to one thousand dollars. Thirty-seven appointments pay from eleven hundred to fifteen hundred dollars, eleven appointments pay from sixteen hundred to two thousand dollars. In this table of salaries the parsonages are not included, counting the parsonages would increase the salaries from two to four hundred dollars. Quite a number of churches established building funds, investing money in government bonds. building and loan associations, real estate, etc., awaiting the day for material and labor to become normal when new churches and parsonages will be erected and extensive alterations and improvements made. I should think that at least one hundred thousand dollars is laid up for such purposes.

New Church Enterprises.

The handsome up-to-date church at Aristes was completed and dedicated by the Conference Superintendent Sunday, July 20th, amidst copious showers of rain. The building is a credit to the denomination and conference and by far the most modern and imposing structure in the beautiful town of Aristes. The total cost was $20,090.00 of which about $13,000.00 was paid or provided.

During the last two years the pastors of Philadelphia Third Church lived in rented houses and were greatly annoyed and inconvenienced by the necessity of moving three times during the conference year. Therefore the Conference Church Extension Board and Home Missionary Society met with the official board of said church in the month of April and authorized the trustees of the church to erect a parsonage not to exceed six thousand dollars.

Ground for the new parsonage along the south side of the church was broken in the month of May and a beautiful home is now awaiting the arrival of the newly ap-

This was a good move as already we could realize a good profit should we be disposed to sell the property, on the other hand the pastor can look forward toward a permanent home and the congregation to considerable less expense and moving annoyances.

A new church is in course of construction at Tower City. The corner-stone was laid Sunday, July 13th, by Dr. H. E. Miller. The building as well as the finances are progressing nicely. Sometime during the year this church will be dedicated.

On the second day of July our church at Schaefferstown was burned out. For want of water and proper fire extinguishing equipment the rather unique limestone building was almost totally destroyed in the presence of many people. The total loss was $5,000.00. Insurance of $2,500.00. The people are worshipping in an abandoned Evangelical Church and are laying plans for a new and modern church.

The abandoned church building commonly called Salems or Matter Church, located near Elizabethville, was sold by the executive committee of the conference church extension board and home missionary society as was ordered by annual conference to the Swab Wagon Company of Elizabethville, for two hundred and fifty dollars, excluding the stoves and the bell.

Evangelism.

From the standpoint of evangelism we are not quite normal. However considerable interest was being manifested and considering the quarantine and the exciting conditions of the war it was a good year and considerably ahead of the last two or three former years. A number of pastors will report an increase in members.

Our ministers are beginning to realize that evangelism does not consist only in a special effort of two or three weeks, but that the entire year should be devoted to special efforts in soul saving. That personal work, house to house visitation, a wel' organized pastor's team or committee always on the job, with sermons on evangelism every Sunday evening will bring lasting results.

Special revival services should be conducted on every appointment for the purpose of reviving the church for the great and important work of soul saving which should be continued every day of the year.

Lebanon Valley College.

Lebanon Valley College ranks equal with any collegiate institution of her class. Therefore members of the United Brethren Church have great reasons to be proud of their institution of learning. The liberal and generous support by the members of the cooperating conferences during the last year placed her upon a solid foundation, which is a great credit to the denomination. The money subscribed with few exceptions is paid promptly. One hundred and ten thousand has already been invested. We trust all will pay their second installment promptly during the month of October, and such who may desire or are able to pay the total amount subscribed, would confer a great favo as well as six per cent, interest to the institution by doing so. One hundred new students were enrolled at the opening of the school. Prospects are bright. We would advise our young men who anticipate the ministry to enter Lebanon Valley College The college and seminary trained ministers are in great demand, therefore we advise the full college course, remain single, the married student as a rule has a charge and appointment that is permanent, that is not much of an asset while going through college.

Conventions and Campmeetings.

The branch meeting of the Woman's Missionary Association held the banner convention at Schuylkill Haven. The attendance was large, overflowing, which necessitated overflow meetings. The money receipts overtopped everything in the past, not only in the East Pennsylvania Conference but in the denomination.

The Christian Endeavor Convention at Columbia was a great success, the attendance was large, a keen interest was being manifested throughout the sessions of the convention. The program was one of the strongest ever executed by any former convention. The entertainment by the good people of Columbia was superb, all told it was a great convention.

The Mt. Gretna Campmeeting or Bible Conference was a decided success and an inspiration to those who were privileged to attend its sessions. Campmeetings were also held at Elizabethville, Mt. Lebanon and Stoverdale. The character of the services devotional and evangelistic, at Mt. Lebanon Dr. E. J. Pace gave some excellent studies on the book of Ephcsians which were very instructive and full of inspiration.

General Remarks.

The work throughout the conference is well organized and the ministers and laity are well working together for the best interests of the church. Pastors are paid regularly and in full, monthly or semi-monthly. A number of the appointments pay their proportionate part of the budgets monthly and thus have a clean sheet as they go from month to month. A number of pastors have their work arranged systematically, they have a time to visit, a time to study, a time for recreation, etc. Pastors' salaries were largely increased during the year, however not what they should be. Considering the high cost of living, I am safe in saying that one-half of our pastors do not receive an adequate salary. We kindly ask for an increase of salaries on every charge during this coming year. This must take place or there will be a dearth in the ministry. We expect the men to devote their undivided time to the charge and therefore kindly ask for better support.

The budgets have not been raised in toto for the last several years and therefore we ask for a slight increase in general on the budgets. We would also urge the pastors to explain the significance of paying a full budget and at times speak of the varied interests as well as their importance, that compose the budgets.

It is very essential that every pastor report full on assessments.

Recommendations.

- 1. That G. A. Richie, C. L. Early and D. E. Young, who served two successive years in the active pastorate be admitted to the itineracy.
- 2. That every pastor arrange a special program for the next year. Set certain goals before the people, make a survey of the unsaved, especially so of those above twelve years in Sunday School, and effect an organization with a determination to bring them to Christ and into the Church.
- 3. We recommend the establishing of Home Parishes. Several of our larger churches in the cities and larger towns would do well to organize and foster a mission and thus become the mother of a thriving church in the future. If we purpose to become effective in the Foreign Field we must not only keep the home fires burning, but every once in a while new ones must be started.
- 4. We recommend that no church assumes a foreign parish that does not pay at least fifteen hundred dollars pastor's salary.
- 5. That East Pennsylvania conference approves the goals as adopted by the last-General Conference and will put forth every effort to hit the mark upon an equitable basis. Assume our apportionment and make special effort to raise the amount. How-ever, we greatly and emphatically disapprove special assessments for arrearages and deficiencies not our own.

- 6. That we approve of the General Sustentation fund of aged ministers and minis-6. That we approve of the General Sustentation fund of aged ministers and ministers' widows on conditions that the assessments for budget or monies collected in East Pennsylvania Conference be on a membership basis and that the returns of the annual dividend to the conference be on a basis of the amount paid to the general treasury. However we would greatly prefer and pray, if possible and consistent to the rulings of general conference to take care of our own ministers and ministers widows by the local fund.
- 7. That for want of time and the convenience of the General Church officers, one day be set apart at the next annual conference for the hearing of reports and addresses upon the general church interests, terming the day as laymen's day.
- 8. That we seek first a full budget and all other special offerings may be added. That Quincy Orphanage and Old People's Home has the right of way for the Christmas offering. That eollege day be observed, and a special effort to reach the top in the special anniversary offering in the fall, Conclusion.

This was a great year, seemingly very short. I devoted my full and undivided time to the work, delivered 88 addresses, preached 80 sermons, conducted 151 quarterly conferences. The work was pleasant, the pastors as well as the people received me with ferences. The work was pleasant, the pastors as well as the people received me with the greatest courtesy. I treasure the kindest regards for every pastor as well as members on the various fields of labor and can truly say I have no likes nor dislikes. My utmost purpose is to do the very best for the Lord, for the pastor as well as for the appointment. I have but one desire, that is to see a large ingathering of souls, the spreading of the church into unchurched territory which I long to see possessed by the United Brethren Church. My aim is a larger church, a deeper work of grace, the salvation of the unsaved and the glorifying of my Lord and Master.

Respectfully submitted.

The following report was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON SOCIAL SERVICE.

The most ancient as well as the most modern text-book on Social Service is that one which is given to us as "a lamp to our feet and a light to our path." The Mosaic code is the historic foundation of that which is finest in our social legislation. Many of the standards set up by the Sinaitic Sage still await complete acceptance by the modern world.

Religion, according to the teaching of the Law and the Prophets, does not consist in forms nor in creeds but in acts of justice and love towards man and in that receptive, trusting attitude toward God which makes it possible for the individual to live in daily fellowship with him: (Deut. 10:12 and Micah 6:8) "He hath showed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God"?

The essense of what is taught by the Law and the Prophets is the same as the program which Jesus announced for himself and the church ("As thou didst send me into the world, even so sent I them into the world." John 17:18), as we have it in Luke 4:18-19: "The spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he anointed me to preach good tidings to the poor; he hath sent me to proclaim release to the captives; and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised, to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord."

That the essence of the teaching of the Old Testament is of a social character is evident from these words of our divine Lord: "All things therefore whatsoever ye would that men should do unto you, even so do ye also unto them: for this is the Law and the Prophets." What Jesus taught can be correctly interpreted only when viewed from the standpoint of the Golden Rule.

Not only did Jesus give his approval to this social standard of religion, but he said also that both he and the church which is to carry to a successful conclusion the work which he began, would continue it after the fashion begun by his predecessors as teachers of religion: "Think not that I am come to destroy the Law or the Prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fiulfill."

That the early Christians so understood the teaching of Jesus is evident from these words of the Athenian orator. Aristides, who plead for the Christian before the Christian bef words of the Athenian orator, Aristides, who plead for the Christians before the Emperor Hadrian (117-138 A. D.) "The Christians know and trust God, the Creator of heaven and earth..... They love one another. They do not refuse to help the widows. They rescue the orphans from them who do them violence. He who has given ungrudgingly to him who has not. If they see a stranger they take him in their dwellings and rejoice over him as over a real brother; for they do not call themselves brothers after the flesh but after the spirit and in God. When one of their poor passes from the world, any one of them who sees it provides for his burial according to his ability. And if they hear that any one of their number is in prison or oppressed for the name of their Messiah, all of them provide for his needs. And if it is possible to redeem him, they deliver him. If any among them are poor and needy and they do not have food to spare, they fast two or three days that they may supply them with the necessary food. They scrupulously observe the commands of their Messiah..... Truly this is a new people and there is something divine in them!"

In view of the foregoing scriptural and historic facts, it is unquestionably true that the present chaotic condition of society is largely due to the want of a proper apprehension of God's objective for the race and at the same time the want of the application of the divinely supplied means by which the objective can be realized. The Christian Church, God's appointed agent for the realization of his objective, has failed to lay the full and complete emphasis where Jesus laid it on right conduct between man and man; and for this neglect it is more or less in disrepute with the masses.

The redemption of the race which is being delayed by reason of the Church's misapprehension of Jesus' program for her, is destined to come to pass because "the Most High ruleth in the Kingdom of men." But it will come to pass only when the Church which is God's agent for this purpose, will insist upon the observance of the principles. of Jesus which are largely social and make them dominant in the thought and activities of the race. When this is fully done then shall be realized in all its fullness the hope of mankind which is implied in that ideal state of life so often spoken of by Jesus under the title of "The Kingdom of God."

Therefore, because Jesus commanded the church to go and make disciples of all the nations, and to teach them to observe all things whatsoever he commanded; and, because the righteousness of Jesus according to his own word in Matt. 25:46 consists in because the righteousness of Jesus according to his own word in Matt. 25:46 consists in social service, be it resolved,

That we, the members (ministerial and lay) of East Pennsylvania Conference of the Church of the United Brethren in Christ, assembled in annual session, piedge ourselves, one and all, to put forth every laudable effort to disseminate and practise in our daily life all that Jesus taught and commanded for the uplift of humanity, thereby proving our loyalty and faithfulness to him who is our only Lord and Master.

The report of the committee on Church Erection was read and held over for action on Friday.

The report of the committee on Sabbath Schools was read and adopted. It follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON SABBATH SCHOOLS.

The Sabbath School stands for one of the most important factors in the Christian Church. Not only for its character and training for future life, but to bring out the latent talent which lies underneath the surface undeveloped in our boys and girls whom we teach. If brought out through the Sabbath School it will fit them for future life and service in the Kingdom. The Sabbath School is the place where the foundation for future life and character is laid, upon which the Church must build. May we realize that the future Church must depend upon the Sabbath School. We rejoice in the fact that we are living in an age when the Church of Jesus Christ has eaught the vision of the importance of the Sabbath School. For we realize that in order to build up our church and school we must begin with the baby and strive to build from the Cradle Roll to the Adult Department. Also may we not forget the evangelistic part of our Sunday School, that is to say, lay great stress on Decision Day wherein so many of our churches fail to see the importance. ..

Our success in leading the child to Christ does not alone depend upon the superintendent or pastor but upon the teacher as well whose life must be an influence for good in the life of his or her pupil. A great opportunity is given to the teacher. It therefore is imperative that the teacher first of all must be a consecrated person, and second a trained teacher or at least have a thorough knowledge of the Bible, and then see to it that the Word is taught.

man as our general secretary of Sunday We are grateful to God for such a man as our general secretary of Sunday Schools, Dr. C. W. Brewbaker. We are glad that God has raised him up to take hold of the Sabbath School work of our denomination. We are confident that his earnestness and labors will cause the church to see the tremendous importance of Sunday School work of a more aggressive character. Tolly Tolly

Resolved: .

- 1. That as a conference we give our hearty cooperation to Dr. Brewbaker in his work.
- 2. That we plan for the observance of the One Hundredth Anniversary of our Sunday School Work in 1920 in harmony with the plans made by the Department of Sunday Schools.
- 3. That every school in the conference strive to reach the 25 per cent, increase in
- enrollment as set by the last General Conference.

 4. That the special days of the Sunday School be observed as per discipline.

 5. That every pastor urges his Sunday School superintendent to see that the proper relationship exist between the church and the school, and that efforts be made for a - larger attendance of the scholars at the church service.

 6: That we request all schools in the conference to organize Teacher Training Classes with this thought in mind that some time in the future all teachers be graduates of the Teacher Training Department. Respectfully submitted,

 J. F. BROWN.

The report of the committee on "The Home" was read and adopted.

THE HOME.

There was never a time when the home means quite so much to the hearts of men and women the world over as now, as never before have the homes of the whole world been so torn with grief. Our boys have come back to us from the world war, what they before the war took for granted in the way of comfort and protection of their homes, they now appreciate and thank God for them.

They have been for a time homeless, box-cars and haymows were their sleeping rooms. The hard wood bench their easy chairs. The mess kit their china and silver-ware.

Home was so far away, and how dear it grew as the days passed wearily away. What a forlorn world without a home.

We parents, brothers, sisters and sweethearts too have learned to appreciate home more while our sons, husbands, brothers and sweethearts were across the seas, as we kept the home fires burning, with our hearts across the seas, and our souls uplifted to Ged, till the boys came home.

If the home is a type of heaven then it must be a Christian home. First of all, and towering above all else, the home must be a place where love exists supremely and in its purity. If it lacks this divine principle, it may have everything of modern style and design, architectural beauty and symmetry, and not be a home at all. What would heaven be, with all its beauty and grandeur if it had not this divine principle, love.

The Christian home must be a place of order. In every home there must be a ruling head, or priest, and that head must be the father and mother jointly. The parents must not allow the children to rule, as the manner of some is. Parental authority must be honored and the home must have a well regulated system of order, which must be enforced by firmness, but with tenderness and love.

From the well ordered homes in this great, broad land of religious and civil liberty, not only are great and good statesmen and eminently intelligent ministers of the Gospel to come, but of equal importance the more common populace of the land, with an intelligence, patriotism and purity of character worthy a well regulated Christian home.

The home must be a place of daily worship of God. No home is complete where there is no family altar, and no form of daily worship of God. If the true spirit of Christianity is to be continued in all its sacred purity it must be impressed upon our children, and children's children in our homes even to the last generation of men.

What was said concerning Abraham may be said of every true Christian parent.
"For I know him, that he will command his children, and his household after him, and they shall keep the way of the Lord, to do justice and judgment that the Lord may bring upon Abraham that which he hath spoken." Gen. 18:19.

Happy is that nation whose children are brought up in such homes. The Christian Happy is that nation whose children are brought up in such homes. The Christian home occupies the most important place in the social, moral and political world, and the most sacred duty of Christian parents, and ministers of the Gospel is the proper home training of our children. On this subject let me call our attention to the clause in our Book of Discipline, p. 65.

"Because of the powerful and far-reaching influence of home life upon the young, it shall be the duty of each pastor to direct the attention of his people to the vital importance of family government and Christian nurture. He shall do this publicly and privately by directing attention to books and periodicals giving helpful instructions upon this subject, and also by presenting in his public ministrations the teachings of God's Word respecting the duty of parents to train up their children in the nurture and admonition of the Lord."

S. G. KAUFFMAN, Committee.

The committee on Christian Endeavor reported. The report was adopted and follows: REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

What of the Christian Endeavor? Has this question ever been of more concern than at the present time? We are led to ask, "Does this organization really have a place in our church life?" We have assumed that it has, and, in the minds of some, it may be folly to even raise the question of the justification of its existence in the light of the stupendous problems that force themselves upon us in considering the young life of the church. We hasten to raise another question, why the apparent lukewarmness and utter church. We hasten to raise another question, why the apparent lukewarmness and utter church. We hasten to raise another question, why the apparent lukewarmness and utter indifference on the part of many local societies as indicated by the reports sent to the Corresponding Secretary of the Conference Union, and the confessions of pastors and Christian Endeavorers in general? One sceretary wrote, "We have a name to live, but are dead." Would this frank acknowledgement cover other cases? There are those, and not a few, who think that it would. Why all the pull to revive the dead and dying, and why have not our pulmotor methods succeeded? There are those of us who believe that in our strenuous endeavor to "put across" modern propaganda, to "go over the top" with one scheme after another, that we have, at least in a measure, lost sight of a vital objective, may I say, the vital objective, and have failed to duly emphasize a vital objective, may I say, the vital objective, and have failed to duly emphasize essential elements in the accomplishment of that objective. May it not be that we have lost the evangelistic note and the means of fostering the evangelistic spirit, namely, real Bible study and real prayer. Any organization that does not stress first and foremost a close study of God's Word and engage in prayer with a view to the saving the souls of men has no right to a place in t hechurch regardless of its other varied claims and activities. This would mean that Missions would have a conspicuous part on the program and yet there were only a few mission study classes reported in a part on the program and yet there were only a few mission study classes reported in a list of some seventy-five societies. There is ground for belief that we have been so busy being sociable, reading clippings, and singing, that we have really forgotten what it is all about.

However, in spite of all this, there is reason for hoping that the tide has turned, for it is with a deep sense of appreciation and a spirit that is refreshing that we look back to the convention that convened in Columbia, June 10th and 11th of this year, the theme of which was "Spiritual Life," and the motto, "That I May Know Him," with strong emphasis on Bible Study and Prayer as the means of deepening the spiritual life of our young people, so as to be better able to do the will of God is soul saving and in counteracting the seductive evil influences of the present age. We rejoice in the splendid group of young people who decided not only to "endeavor" but to "do" definite Christian work which is a decided proof that God grants fruit when His ways are followed.

In view of all this, be it resolved

First, that as Christian Endeavorers, we emphasize as never before the fundamentals of the "faith once for all delivered to the saints." and that we seek to have our young people rooted and grounded in that faith through Bible Study and Prayer.

Second, that Missions be given their rightful place in Christian Endeavor as well as in the other organizations of the church.

Third, that the high spiritual standard attained in the convention be maintained in the local societics.

Fourth, that we will pay close attention to the spiritual and educational development of our young people with a view to strong leadership in the ehurch.

Fifth, that Christ have His way in all the activities of the local societies. Committee: O. T. EHRHART.

The conference roll of itinerants and local preachers was called and corrected.

In the election for superintendent one hundred and twenty-seven ballots were cast. Dr. Enck received one hundred and eight votes and was declared the choice of the conference.

The Reverend A. W. Cooper of the First United Evangelical Church, and the Reverend W. B. Smith of the Twelfth St. Lutheran Church, were introduced.

The Conference Missionary and Church Extension Society report was submitted by the secretary, T. G. Spangler. The report was adopted and follows. To the Bishop and Members of the East Pennsylvania Conference:

Your Board of Managers of the Conference Missionary and Church Extension Society has endeavored during the year to keep in touch with the interests of the Missions with as little expense as possible, and hence eliminated the regular quarterly meetings at the Missions. The reports of the Mission Pastors, however, were regularly received.

The first meeting was held in Philadelphia at our Third Church, as was agreed upon at a joint meeting with a committee from the said church, at the last session of conference. The trustees presented the following statement and requests. There are a number of unpaid taxes covering some years, which came to light

Second. The unfinished part of the building, chiefly the basement, which is needed to conduct the work in a manner to gain the confidence of the community.

Third. The financial burdens at the present time make it necessary to ask for temporary relief, as follows:

To be relieved of paying on the loan for a period of four years.

That the taxes for 1916 be paid by the conference, it being the period prior 2nd.

to the property passing into the hands of the trustees.

The resolution on these matters recognized the possibilities of the church and the importance of completing the basement, as well as other portions of the building; and hence agreed to assume payment of taxes for the year 1916, and exempt them from paying on the loan for at least a period of two years, and in case of necessity to extend the time to four years. This action was very satisfactory to the officials and seemed to inspire new courage and new hopes.

A very satisfactory tour of inspection was made later in the year covering a number of our Missions. The first stop was made at Coatesville where a large number of the officials were present. The questions propounded by the Conference Superintendent brought out these interesting facts: The increase in membership since organization, the loyalty and devotion of the membership, the large annual offerings, the progressive spirit as seen in the beautiful auditorium, and the prospect of erecting a parsonage.

The next stop was made in Philadelphia at the Third Church. This being their prayer meeting evening, a large number of members with the officials were present. A delightful meeting was held, after which the President, Dr. Enck, presided over a business session. The pastor answered the questions which indicated that the congregation and the Sunday School are increasing in attendance. Yet the community does not take the interest in the project thus far as was expected. The chief trouble at present is the lack of a home to house the pastor, no houses being available, and the present one must be vacated. Plans and specifications were presented for the erection of a parsonage.

Allentown was next visited, where the usual inquiry revealed a decided improvement in the outlook for the Mission. Paster and people are hopeful and of good cour-

The next stop was at Pottstown, where an interesting meeting with pastor and officials was held. It is noteworthy to say that at all these meetings sisters took an active part. The outlook and condition at Pottstown, while hopeful as expressed by the officials, it remains a fact that the growth is hampered by an unfortunate location.

The Board passed the following resolutions on the Philadelphia Third Church, viz:

1st. That the parsonage be built as per contract on the lot located on the south side of the church on Camac Street, the cost of which not to exceed six thousand dollars.

2nd. That the Conference Missionary and Church Extension Society loan the said amount to the officiary of the church in sums, upon presentation of bills and statements rendered by the contractor, countersigned by S. C. Snoke, certifying that material and labor, itemized in said bills and statements are correct; and Provided, Further, That final settlement be made by the Conference Treasurer in conjunction with t ence Superintendent, only after they shall be fully satisfied that the contract has been fully met and fulfilled; and Provided, Further, That a release of all liens shall be furnished by contractors and sub-contractors to said society; and Provided, Further, That the Philadelphia Third Church shall be responsible to the Conference Missionary and Church Extension Society as follows: 1st. That the said church pay to the Conference Missionary and Church Extension Society the sum of Three Hundred Dollars annually in monthly payments of Twenty Five Dollars each as interest on said loan. 2nd. That said church assume all other financial obligations incident to said parsonage such as taxes, water rents, insurance, etc.

On the Philadelphia Second Church it was resolved to request the payment of interest on the remaining loan at the rate of five per cent. per annum, beginning with the ensuing conference year.

On the Harrisburg Sixth Street Church loan, it was resolved to request the refunding of said loan or as much thereof as is possible and the payment of five per cent.

interest on the balance beginning with the ensuing conference year.

In discussing the great movements inaugurated in our church, attention was called to the necessity of occupying inviting fields within our boundary, so as to assure future growth and usefulness, the most important of which is the extensive section in Philadelphia, known as the Sherwood section, which is being placed on the market and no doubt will be developed with the same amazing rapidity of other heretofore new sections. That the section offers an unrivalled opportunity to the church will be patent to any one visiting it. The matter was left to the watchful care of the superintendent with a view of getting an option on a lot in a favorable location.

The Conference is invited to act on this matter, as quite a number of our members are living in this vicinity. The thought is not to build at this time, but to secure a location, if possible.

The report of the committee on The Bible Cause was read by J. O. Jones. The report was adopted and is as follows:

THE BIBLE CAUSE.

When Sir Walter Scott was dying, he said to his secretary, "Read to me." "From what book?" the latter asked. "There is only one Book," Scott answered, and the Bible was read to him. It is, indeed, the only book which teaches us how to live so that we may be worthy of eternal life. that we may be worthy of eternal life. 7: 017 Gepts and principles into terms of humanitarian service and evangelistic living. To Moral reformations, religious institutions, Christian homes and pure hearts, are all born, and developed through the life-giving personality of the Master, as revealed in the Word of God. It should, therefore, not be allowed to become dusty in the homes nor dull the spirit life from misuse., The Bible stands alone in its ability, not only to lead Christian people to victory, but also to sustain them in periods of readjustment and reconstruction, mi Men can not know or prophesy the burdens we may be called upon to bear, in the very near future, but mentare at fault if they do not know, and are not ready to proclaim, that the God of our Fathers is our only hope. It is He through His Word, that furnishes to the leader and layman alike, strength and poise sufficient for the needs of any day of renewed interest in God's great Book will steady us for any emergency. Therefore, be it resolved, First, that we bespeak the kind consideration of our whole membership for the American Bible Society in their great work of translating the Bible into one hundred and thirty-five languages. bus best eathefort of the committee on publishing interests.

The publishing interests of the Church are vitally related to the life of the denomination to we are living in a reading tage. The average man and woman of our day is eagerly seeking reading material of one kind or the other. It is exceedingly important that the denomination through its printing establishment furnish the right kind of reading matter to its membership. This is a wonderful day in which we are living. It is a day of tremendous opportunity for the forces of the Kingdom. The Church occupies a place of opportunity as never before in her history. A world is looking to her for guidance. She can guide aright only by keeping her members informed of the great needs of the day and providing for them such literature that will be to them an inspirational factor in their lives. Our people need the very best reading material, and the best for United Brethren in Christ can come only from the United Brethren Press. Too great emphasis can not be laid upon this matter. Often because of the lack of reading material suited to the needs of our people and the denominational life, books, magazines, and papers of very questionable character find access into our homes, and the consequent result usually is an undermined faith and character in our young people.

We are glad to learn through the report of our Publishing Agent of the increasing prosperity of our publishing interests, and that our denominational paper, the Religious Telescope, is finding its way into new homes. The management of the house is to be commended for their untiring efforts to increase its circulation and thereby its usefulness to the Church. We feel that our periodicals are well edited, and deserve first place among the reading matter of all United Brethren homes.

In view of the great importance of this matter, and of the unprecedented needs and opportunities of this new day be it resolved,

- 1. That we hereby pledge our hearty cooperation to the publishing interests of the Church.
- 2. That we recommend the Religious Telescope to all of our people and that as pastors and laymen of the East Pennsylvania Conference we make untiring effort to place it into every home of the Conference.
 - 3. That we urge a larger circulation of all our papers and periodicals.
- 4. That especial effort be made through some organization in every local church in the conference to materially increase the circulation of the Conference Herald.
- 5. That we request all our people to purchase their books from our own Publishing House.

H. J. BEHNEY.

Dr. Funk reported S. F. Daugherty, pastor of the Annville congregation, as having secured the highest number of Telescope subscriptions in the conference, and in the absence of the pastor, awarded pennants to Hon. A. S. Kreider, lay delegate of the church. B. M. Breneman, Thomas Garland. B. F. Daugherty, C. H. Holzinger, W. E. Daugherty, R. S. Arndt and A. K. Wier were presented with ribbon badges in token of having exceeded the quota of subscriptions assigned to their respective charges.

Dr. E. S. Brownmiller and M. Luther Brownmiller, pastors of St. Mark Lutheran Church; H. D. Kreidler, St. Paul United Evangelical, and Dr. S. A. Leinbach of the Reformed Church were introduced.

A supplementary report of the committee on applicants and credentials was read and adepted. It follows:

We have examined the credentials of Rev. B. M. Boston and find them regular and valid, but in the absence of a dismissal from the Methodist Episcopal Church deem it unwise to recommend his admission to the conference.

H, E. MILLER, J. T. SPANGLER, ARTHUR S. LEHMAN.

A motion to reconsider the fourth recommendation of the Superintendent's report was lost.

Announcements were made. The motion for adjournment prevailed. The benediction was pronounced by Dr. H. W. Tope.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT, LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE, ANNVILLE, PA.

To the members of the East Pennsylvania Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren: At the beginning of the present Administration seven years ago it was asked that three definite things be accomplished. They were first, a better and more loyal spirit among the students; second, a larger student body, and third, an adequate endowment fund.

I am pleased to state, what everybody knows, that all these objects have been accomplished. In the year that just closed, Lebanon Valley, like other colleges, was hit hard by the war and war conditions. Nevertheless, a splendid spirit prevailed even though the Student Army Training Corps and influenza had a very demoralizing effect. The prevalence of influenza caused the school to close for a month. In order to make up the lost time, commencement date was extended one month. The spirit of the students was good. The faculty, though greatly taxed, did efficient work. Their salaries were entirely too low, but thanks to the Board of Trustees the standard salary was reject to the standard salary. was raised to $1800.

The S. A. T. C. while it brought with it many demoralizing influences proved itself to be a blessing in a financial way. When the Government paid the bill presented by us, covering tuition, board and room rent we felt that we were honorably dealt with. Later however, they sent us a check for $4,625.63. This proved a great blessing and help. The year closed with 53 graduating from the various departments; 43 of this number graduated from the College Department Proper with the Bachelor's degree. There have been as many graduates from the College Department proper the last four years as there were the first twenty-eight years of the college's history.

On the part of the Trustecs I desire to thank East Pennsylvania and Pennsylvania Conferences for the financial aid given of about $4000 each for current expense. No college lives and succeeds on the amount paid by students. Assistance must come from other sources, either from endowment or individual gifts. I sincerely hope the Conferences will continue the $4,000 asked by the Board of Trustees and if possible increase this amount for the coming year.

The Endowment Campaign which resulted in raising nearly $400,000 is proving itself a great help in many ways. Of this amount $110,000 plus the expense of the campaign $23,000 has been paid to date. This amount is invested and is yielding an average of 5 per cent. The second installment is due Oct. 1, 1919.

The Class of 1919 catching the spirit of former classes placed a metal ceiling in the chapel and frescord the entire hall at a cost of more than $800.

The new year began auspiciously Sept. 17 with an address by Dr. Samuel Z. Shope, LL.D., of Harrisburg, Pa. This address was timely and full of good advice for stu-A religious tone prevailed throughout.

Our student body, while not up to pre-war days, has filled all our dormitories. A very excellent set of students enrolled and the outlook for the year is very encouraging.

We need a Domestic Science Course and hope that somebody will give us $1,000 with which to equip such a department.

In order to meet a tremendous demand on the part of young men, Lebanon Valley at the earliest possible date should have engineering courses. This will necessarily entail expenses, but if the Church is to hold our United Brethren boys and girls it must offer the courses of study which they want or they will go elsewhere to get it which thing they have been doing for many years.

Many young people in our Church have heard the call to be "Life Service Recruits."

They ought to go to college to prepare for service. Unfortunately, many of them are poor and cannot go without help. Our great need is adequate Scholarship Funds. We have about $1600 at our command. If we had several thousand dollars, we could add 40 to 50 students without any trouble. We need money to help now as well as permanent funds for future use.

Our hope and prayer is that God will lay it upon the hearts of individuals, local churches, organizations and conferences and cause them to respond with funds adequate to put these young people over the line. It will pay the Church without doubt to do this.

That God may bless the co-operating conferences and through them Lebanon Valley College and thus cause it to be a great "Recruiting Station" for trained and efficient workers in the kingdom of the Lord is my wish and prayer.

G. D. GOSSARD, President.

The minutes of the previous day's session were read and approved.

The report on Home Missions was read by G. A. Richie. It was approved. It follows:

REPORT ON HOME MISSIONS.

All nations have been turning US-ward. They have been awaiting, with abated breath, the decision of the United States. Starving multitudes have been looking to America for physical and spiritual sustenance. But America cannot lead the world to Christ until America belongs to Christ. As appeal after appeal comes to us, we retraspect and are conscious of the fact that without Christ we are insufficient for the task.

We have been called "the melting pot," but the world war has forced us to admit that our process of assimilation has not "racited." Seventeen and a half millions of ailen-born dwell in our land, of whom only a third have become citizens. The composing a tenth of our population, are still allen in life, sympathy and thought. The rest, vast multitude must be Americanized. Americanization should not mean casting representative ingots of ail races and tongues into the hopper at Ellis Island, and then having standardized Americans in every city and hamlet. True Americanization must mean the recasting or rebirth of various racial stocks into a brotherhood of men, cleansed in the blood of Christ, and zealous exponents of the ideals of the Man of Gaiilee.

The immigrants have settled chiefly in the cities. Fifty per cent. of the population of the larger cities are foreign, or born of foreign parents. Within the confines of East Pennsylvania Conference are thirty-six cities of ten thousand or more inhabitants, in which there is not a United Brethren class or church building. (Eighteen are in Pennsylvania and eighteen in New Jersey.) Some of the Pennsylvania centres are Bethlehem, Pottsviile, Easton, West Chester. Shenandoah, Tamaqua, Ashland, Phoenixviile, Scranton, and Wilkes-Barre. Many of these cities are contiguous to thickly settled United Brethren territory, and a constant stream of our people, migrating, are lost to the denomination. Our own transient church members, and the foreign field, moved to our front door, cry, "Come and church us."

The records of the War Department reveal that more than twenty-four per cent. of the draft army were unable to read and understand a newspaper or write a letter home. This was nearly one out of every four of the men of military age in the nation. Can you imagine, in this enlightened twentieth century, with all its educational facilities, such a multitude unable to read the current events and the precious Word of God, men entirely dependent upon oral information concerning the material and spiritual world? This is a menace to the country and church. Here is a field for the followers of Christ.

Only forty million people of the United States, counting Catholics, Christian Scientists, Spiritualists, etc., claim church connection, leaving the great majority of seventy millions outside the pale of any church. In our great cities, there are many little ghettoes, Italies, Bohemias, etc., whose confines are never touched by any Christian influences. On the other hand, some rural sections are void of churches for many miles.

With these facts before us, our conclusions are:

1. That we devote ourselves unreservedly to the United Enlistment Movement, reemphasizing prayer as the only medium to the solution of the world's and nation's present problems.

2. That we endorse the Home Missionary Society's policy of "opening city work, and especially in communities where we have much rural constituency, but are not represented in the city."

3. That we again urge the Home Missionary Society, with the Conference Missionary and Church Extension Society, to investigate the strategic centres, located within our conference, but as yet unoccupied by the United Brethren Church. (One loyal, progressive layman offers to East Pennsylvania Conference a corner site in a growing community to be used when the Conference deems wise. A compelling challenge!)

munity to be used when the Conference deems wise. A compelling challenge!)

4. That we recommend our pastors and churches to organize "Americanization" elasses for the purpose of making Christian citizens of the strangers within our gates.

5. That we encourage an educational program in the local church, and request a rightful recognition of the claims of the Home Missionary cause on all conference programs.

G. W. HALLMAN, C. E. RETTEW, G. A. RICHIE, Committee.

The committee on Elder's Orders made a report. The report was adopted and follows:

We, your committee on Ordination, beg leave to report that we have examined, as per discipline, N. I. Fake and C. W. Schwalm. We find them sound in doctrine and recommend that they be ordained. Mrs. Belle Richie having met the requirements of the discipline of the church for deaconess, we recommend that she be ordained.

J. A. KEIPER, THOS. GARLAND, M. H. MILLER.

The Commission on Finance made a report. The report was amended with reference to the assessments for Preachers' Aid as follows: "That five cents per member be added to the assessments in the column for Preachers' Aid, for the purpose of augmenting the appropriation of $2000.00 for distribution among conference claimants next year." With this amendment the report was adopted. The report as amended is as follows:

FINANCE COMMISSION.

N. B.—The figures in the columns following Baltimore Otterbein are those assumed by that congregation.

A letter from the Secretary of Education, William E. Schell, was read by the secretary of the conference.

Dr. Landis addressed the conference on the importance of Christian education in general, and with particular emphasis regarding the education of the ministry and the interest of Bonebrake Seminary.

A resolution following herewith was offered and adopted:

WHEREAS, six years ago Dr. S. C. Enck canvassed this entire Conference District, taking subscriptions and individual notes for the Second Church of the United Brethren in Christ, Philadelphia, Pa.; and

WHEREAS, an earnest effort has been made by the Board of Trustees of said church to collect the balance still due on these promises; therefore be it

RESOLVED, That the Conference Treasurer be instructed to turn over to the Trustees of said church all the notes held by him, for the above named church, and by said Board returned when paid to those individuals who signed them.

N. L. LINEBAUGH, E. O. BURTNER.

The corrected report of the committee on Church Erection was submitted and was adopted. It follows:

CHURCH ERECTION REPORT.

The year 1919 marks the fiftieth anniversary of the Church Erection Society, consequently this department of our church work stands out most conspicuously at the present time. By action of the last General Conference, it was ordered that this fiftieth anniversary be fittingly observed on November 30th, 1919; when our entire denomination is asked to john in an exercise "The building of a church."

The various societies, having discontinued their special appeals for funds over and above the budget the past year, will unite with the Church Erection Society in asking the whole denomination for a cash offering, the equivalent of one (1) day's income. We heartly recommend that every local church in the East Penna. Conference join in this observance.

The Church Erection Society has aided in the construction of over 700 different building enterprises, which means, (according to the figures of the 1919 Year Book) that it has aided in the construction of one out of every five of our church houses. Dr. A. C. Siddall's report to the Church is as follows: "The Society has made loans aggregating almost $500,000.00, and the property values secured to the Church through Church Erection aid now totals just a little short of $5,000,000.00. The total valuation of all our church houses is now $13,801,105.00, which shows that more than one-third of our total church house valuations was secured through Church Erection aid. Furthermore, the church has received back thirteen dollars worth of property for every dollar it has ever contributed to Church Erection."

Surely, this department of our Church deserves our highest commendation and continued enthusiastic support. The Society will continue its good work, but it must have more money to meet the demands of to-day, for hundreds of new centers must be entered if we wish to continue to be an ever-growing denomination; while scores of our older churches must relocate and rebuild. Many of these churches will ask for aid. With the present funds in hand, many requests will have to be turned down because of the high price of building materials and the value of the dollar having diminished at least fifty per cent. within the past few years.

Recognizing, therefore, the success, opportunities, and demands of this important department of our denominational life and development; be it

Resolved, First, That the churches in our Conference territory that have loans from the Church Erection Society be urged to make the best possible effort to return their loans when due.

Resolved, Second, That we express our appreciation of the untiring labors of our General Secretary, Dr. A. C. Siddall, and pledge him our continued co-operation and support.

CHAS. H. HOLZINGER, Committee.

The report of the committee on Foreign Missions was submitted and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF FOREIGN MISSIONS BY THE FOREIGN MISSIONARY COMMITTEE.

Paul, on his second missionary journey, entered the city of Thessalonica, and preached in the synagogue of the Jews; for there was a large colony of Jews in the city. The result was the formation of a church composed of a few Jews and many devout Gentiles. But the Jews which believed not, moved with envy, gathered a company of lewd fellows and assaulted the house in which Paul and his companions were staying, and when the Apostle could not be found, they drew Jason, the master of the house, and certain brethren unto the rulers of the city, crylng: "These that have turned the world upside down have come hither also; whom Jason hath received; and these all do contrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying, that there is another king, one Jesus."

Paul and his companions told the people of "another king, one Jesus," and the result

Paul and his companions told the people of "another king, one Jesus," and the result was a little theocracy in Thessalonica. But after a while the people got tired of this form of government, and consequently, as in the days of the Judges, they asked for a visible king. They were permitted to have their request; and so they placed king Ecclesiasticism upon the throne. If Paul could have gone back a century or two later into the once Christian Church the people could not have persuaded him that it was any other than a heathen temple. In time the people tired of this king also; so they got another—Mysticism by name. In the Middle Ages they dethroned Mysticism and enthroned Scholasticism. But none of these kings were satisfactory, and so Prince Science advanced his claim to the throne, saying: "give me facts, and I will make men free." Men got and are getting facts but they are not set free. Science has produced a magnet that will draw a splinter of steel from man's eye, but Science has not been able to draw the guilt of sin from man's heart. The world needs something more than science;

for pure knowledge alone will not save it. The world realizes this fact, and so in our day it has called Democracy to the throne. Democracy is hailed to-day by the masses as the king which will solve satisfactorily all of our problems. We do not believe that this king will solve the world's problem, for Christ or Christianity is not mentioned in Democracy's charter. Over all these kings and kingdoms we may write:

"Our Lord is now rejected, and by the world disowned,

By the many still neglected, and by the few enthroned."

Men have set up and are setting up these kings—they have and are crying out as at Herod's Coronation: "It is the voice of a god, and not of man." And God in turn has and is smiting them to the earth from which they came. "Another king" is needed; and the Church of God knows where He may be found.

The world has but one problem; and that is the problem of sin. And furthermore, there is "another king, one Jesus," who can adequately solve the problem of sin. This other king, whom we are preaching—we must continue to preach to all the peoples of other King, whom we are preaching—we must continue to preach to all the peoples of the earth; for His name is Jesus, and He alone can save the people from their sins, The war has taught us with a new vividness and clearness, the world's absolute need for Jesus Christ alone. "Diplomacy, trade, secular education, scientific progress, and Western civilization have all of them been exploited for the last generation as the remedy for the world's want and sin, and we have seen them all go up in smoke as when a man might throw straw on a fire." All other religions of the world have proven that they are inadequate and insufficient to solve the problem of sin, Which is the problem of the world. There is only One that can save this bleeding world and relate all men to each other as brothers, and that One is Jesus Christ or Christianity.

If we would serve our age and adequately meet all its needs, we must carry out our Lord's command: "Go ye therefore, and make disciples of all the nations; baptizing them into the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit: teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I commanded you." Fully determined to meet the needs of the world; be it

Resolved, First, That we renew our devotion to the Foreign Missionary Society of our denomination, and pledge our support in every way possible to attain the financial goals of the Society as set forth by the General Conference.

Resolved, Second, That we acquaint our membership with our mission fields by mission study, sermons, addresses, etc., with the two-fold purpose of intensifying the conviction that Christianity alone is the absolute religion; and the calling out of the called among our young people to definite missionary service.

Resolved, Third, That we hereby express our appreciation of the worth of our missionaries who hazarded and are hazarding their lives to carry out the command of our Lord, and to supply the world with its only need, namely, Jesus Christ.

Resolved, Fourth, That we more diligently exercise the privilege of intercession for the success and safety of our work and workers.

Respectfully submitted,
GEO. M. RICHTER,
N. L. LINEBAUGH, CHAS. H. HOLZINGER.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS.

WHEREAS, The one hundred and twentieth session of East Pennsylvania Conference of the United Brethren in Christ has marked a new era of prosperity never before equalled in its history, therefore be it

RESOLVED, 1. That we recognize the good hand of our God, in bringing to a conclusion the awful carnage in Europe, and thank Him for the material and spiritual blessings so bountifully bestowed on our churches during the past year, and that as pastors and laymen we will endeavor during the year to come ever more faithfully to seek His guidance and help in all our ways.

2. That while thousands have fallen in the swath of the grim reaper death, during the terrible epidemic of influenza, we devoutly thank Him that not one of our ministers in the active service has passed away as the direct result of the plague.

3. The key-word to success in our churches is prayer; therefore as pastors and laymen, may we pledge ourselves to do all we can to restore the family altar in every

- 4. In view of the splendid growth of Lebanon Valley College in the last few years, and its very hopeful outlook for the future, we heartily commend the work of the President and his faithful corps of teachers; and sincerely hope that the day is not far distant when the Board of Trustees will see their way clear to begin the erection of new buildings so much needed to meet the demands of this worthy institution. Also that we support Bonebrake Theological Seminary with our means as well as our prayers.
- 5. That we renew our support to the Religious Telescope, Watchword, Conference Herald, Evangel, and other church literature.
- 6. We rejoice that our beloved Bishop William M. Bell, D.D., LL.D., has again regained his strength, and after a siege of sickness is again able to be with us, and preside so very acceptably at this conference, that we reaffirm our high regard for his admirable leadership.
- 7. That we express our gratitude to the pastor, Rev. D. D. Buddinger, and his loyal people and friends of Salem Church for the very hospitable and generous entertainment.
- 8. That we express our gratitude to the Press for the large space given to the conference proceedings.

M. H. WERT.

The fee for compensation insurance was fixed at $3.00 for each charge. It was ordered that the fee be forwarded to the conference treasurer immediately after conference. A statement giving amount of salary paid to those employed regularly by the church must accompany the remittance.

On motion it was ordered that the conference be authorized and empowered to borrow such amounts of money as may be necessary in the transaction of the conference business.

The final adjournment was fixed at 10 A. M., Monday, October 6, 1919.

E. O. Burtner, pastor at First Church, Palmyra, Pa., brought a greeting from Father P. L. Haines, a veteran member of the conference, who for the first time in many years of faithful service, was, by the infirmities of age and illness, prevented from attending the sessions of annual conference. The conference through the pastor returned warm greetings.

The standing committees for the years 1919-20 were appointed by the Bishop. They

The following district leaders for the United Enlistment Movement were appointed: Harrisburg, S. E. Rupp; Hershey, R. R. Butterwick; Lebanon, H. E. Miller; Myerstown, I. M. Hershey; Reading, D. D. Buddinger; New Holland, C. E. Rettew; Philadelphia, C. Y. Ulrich; Allentown, G. A. Richie; Lancaster, G. D. Batdorf; Highspire, M. H. Wert; Millersburg, Oliver L. Mease; Schuylkill Haven, and Shamokin, H. J. Behney.

FOURTH DAY—AFTERNOON SESSION.

The conference opened with devotions led by William Beach. He read the thirteenth chapter chapter of I Corinthians and led in prayer.

The greetings of the Woman's Missionary Association were brought by Miss Susan Balsbaugh. A fitting response was made by D. D. Buddinger.

The interests of Quincy Home and Orphanage were presented by H. M. Miller.
The selection of H. S. Immel, Warren A. Thomas, A. J. Cochran, J. L. Straub, C. M.
Coover, Henry Wolfe and J. E. Gipple as Trustees-at-large, of Lebanon Valley College was confirmed. The appointment of H. H. Shenk by the Alumni Association as alumnal trustee was also approved.

The following resolution was adopted:
"We have listened with intelligent and undivided inquiry to the presentation, by our visiting brethren to their portrayal of the purpose and method—the modus operandi, of the Enlistment Movement. We have sincerely desired and awaited a carefully prepared ad seriatim statement of the whole fact. We are assuming that the Board of Administration has not arrived at any more definite method of procedure than has been presented.

Therefore, In the absence of that complete information which the conference needs for intelligent deliberation upon this so great and vital question, we recommend that the Conference Church Extension Board be empowered to finally dispose of the matter in behalf of the Conference when the Board of Administration shall have completed and presented such statement of facts.

Furthermore, We express ourselves as being in full accord with the spiritual aspect of the program and will give intelligent attention to the claims set forth therein."

At the memorial service, which was the order of the hour, tributes prepared by G.

M. Richter, to the memory of L. R. Kramer; and one prepared by M. H. Jones, to the memory of I. H. Albright; were read and approved. They follow:

THE REVEREND LEWIS REDOLPHUS KRAMER. By George M. Richter.

LEWIS REDOLPHUS KRAMER, son of William A. and Mary Deibert Kramer, was born July 9, 1853, in Schuylkill Haven, Pa. His entire boyhood and early manhood were spent in the town of his birth.

It was here that he fitted himself for the profession of school teaching which calling he was afterwards to follow for a period of 6 years. Here too he became a regular attendant on the Sunday School and Church services of the United Brethren Church at whose altars he confessed conversion at the age of 16 years in 1869 under the ministry of the Reverend J. R. Meredith, then pastor of the church.

In 1873, at the age of 20 years, he began to teach school and continued in this work in the district schools of lower Schuylkill County for a period of 6 years with much acceptability.

On September 18, 1875, he was united in marriage to Miss Ella Schuylkill Haven, by the Reverend P. A. Bowman, pastor of the Messiah United Brethren Church of Schuylkill Haven, Pa., of which church both contracting parties were members. This union was blessed with 3 children, one of whom, Mrs. Emma Ober, of Collingswood, Pa., survives. Two sons preceded him in death.

It was during the period of his work as a public school teacher that his thoughts were directed repeatedly to the claims of the Gospel Ministry upon his life. Three of his pastors, the Reverends P. A. Bowman, J. C. Mumma and C. S. Meily, did much to press home this claim on the young man. After much thought and prayer about the matter he yielded his life to the Ministry as his life work under the pastorate of the Reverend C. S. Meily who proved himself a wise and sympathetic adviser, placing his fine library at the young student's disposal and carefully tutoring him in some studies and wisely directing his reading. These years of fellowship with the Reverend Meily left a marked impression on his entire life. Habits of study and fixed purposes were formed which remained throughout life. Brother Kramer attributed much of success in after years to the wise, sympathetic pastor.

He received his Quarterly Conference License in Schuylkill Haven, Pa., on May 25, 1878 from the hands of the Reverend M. J. Mumma, Presiding Elder of the District. After two years of study, preaching and exhorting in the surrounding churches he was admitted to membership in the East Pennsylvania Conference in session at Reading, Pa., on March 17, 1880, Bishop J. Dickson presiding. He immediately accepted work as an active pastor and was assigned to Catawissa Circuit. From the very beginning of his pastorate his labors were blessed of God in the salvation of many souls and many staunch Christians owe their start in the Faith to his earnest entreaty and fearless preaching.

Brother Kramer was ordained an Elder in the Church by Bishop J. Dickson in Chambersburg, Pa., on March 4, 1883.

During his fruitful ministry which continued without a break for 38 years and 9 months he served faithfully and well the following charges.

Catawissa Circuit 1880-1882	St. John's Circuit (Lanc. Co.) 1896-1897
Jefferson Circuit (Penna. Con.) 1882-1883	Mt. Joy Circuit 1897-1898
Florin, Pa 1883-1886	Pleasant Hill (Leb. Co.) 1898-1901
Ephrata, Pa	Avon, Pa 1901-1904
Manheim, Pa 1889-1898	Pinegrove, Pa 1904-1915
Hummelstown, Pa 1893-1896	Cressona, Pa1915-to Jan. 1st, 1919

Brother Kramer looked back over the years of service conscious of his many mistakes and shortcomings in the service of the Savior whom he loved so much but with much pride and satisfaction in his faithfulness. He never refused a charge nor resigned from one it mattered not how poor the living or how bad the conditions.

At the time of the last session of the Annual Conference he was unable to attend, much to his regret, for it was the only session he had missed in his entire ministry. He had been alling for some months prior to that time but he continued to do his work as pastor and preacher with a bit of help from his neighboring brethren. He firmly believed that he was growing better, and so it appeared to many of his friends, until soon after the session of the last conference when, while attending to heavy pastoral duties in the midst of the terrible Influenza Plague, he suffered a hemorrhage which forced him to his couch from which he never arose again in this life. He soon realized that he had not long to live and cheerfully resigned himself to setting his house in order and awaiting God's call, which came at 5 P. M. Jan. 1, 1919, after many weeks of patient suffering. He was aged 65 years, 5 months and 22 days.

Throughout his entire illness he kept in close touch with the work of the Church and this interest was beautifully reciprocated by his faithful and kind congregation.

He viewed his going with caim eagerness and his conversation was constantly of assurance and the prospective joy in being with him whom he loved and served. He his assurance and the prospective joy in being with him whom he loved and served. He labored faithfully and well. He was "nnstant in season, out of season." "preaching, reproving, admonishing, rebuking," entreating until his strength was gone and he went home conscious that he had fought a good warfare, that he had kept the Faith and that a crown awaits him yonder.

His works do follow him in the lives he touched and galvanized into action for his Master. He was a faithful effective minister.

To his companion who remains, and his daughter, grandson, 3 sisters and two brothers his legacy of faithful service, good name and noble, godly life abide as a precious memory.

He was buried in Prospect Cemetery, Schuylkill Haven, Pa., after services held in the Cressona United Brethren Church in charge of the Conference Superintendent, Dr. C. Enck.

"Rest from thy labor, rest; Soul of the just set free! Blest be thy memory, and blest Thy bright example be!"

> THE REVEREND ISAAC HUNTSBERGER ALBRIGHT. M. H. Jones.

Mr. Chairman:

Sharing the very common illusion that words are a proper mode of testifying our sense of loss, when a friend whom we loved, a minister whom the church can ill afford to lose, is called away. I embrace the opportunity which the occasion affords, to pay this humble tribute to the character and service of our departed Brother, and add one little flower to the charlet with which respect esteem and affection have varianced the little flower to the chaplet with which respect, esteem, and affection have garlanded the memory of our Brother, Dr. Isaac Huntsberger Albright.

The simple facts of his life may soon be written; but the hidden springs of his influence and charm it would take long to trace.

Dr. Albright was born at West Fairview, Cumberland County, Pa., April 9, 1858. His parents were Michael and Fannie (Huntsberger) Albright. They had four children, Isaac being the eldest. He worked on his father's farm and attended the public and preparatory schools, and taught one term in the school of his district.

In 1872, at the age of nineteen, he entered Lebanon Valley College. He came to college with a good equipment of school knowledge and a habit of conscientious work, ready for the impulse which would make him a vigorous and independent thinker. He graduated at the head of his class in 1876 receiving the degree of Bachelor of Arts. He continued his studies under private instructors for several years, and in 1879 he received the degree of Master of Arts, and later the degree of Doctor of Philosophy.

He entered college with the intention of subsequently pursuing a medical course, but becoming a Christian early in his college course he changed his plans, and in 1876 he gave himself to the work of the Christian ministry, and was licensed to preach February 15, 1876, at an Annual Conference held at Hummelstown, Bishop David Edwards presiding. He was ordained an Elder at a Conference in Annville, March 14, 1879, by Bishop J. J. Glossbrenner. He served the following named charges: Manheim, Florin, Mt. Wolf, York First, four years as Presiding Elder of the Pennsylvania Conference, Dallastewn, Shamokin, Lebanon Salem, Reading Zion, New Holland, Middletown, and Cleona.

He died April 21, 1919. Besides his widow he is survived by three sons, one daughter, two brothers, and one sister.

The pulpit has its "ornamental men," as they are sometimes called. Apart from their garb or their physique alone, they attract attention. Their smile is fascinating and their tone and gestures are impressive. Dr. Albright did not always present such a figure. In repose he was a serious scholar, busy with his own thoughts. In discourse, he spake with warmth and naturalness, without any attempt at personal display. The argumentative style and the convincing illustration used, revealed the work of a close thinker and an earnest preacher of the gospel.

Unfettered by manuscript, he spake with directness and power. In the serious, self-forgetful earnestness of his manner and in the instructive material of his sermons, Dr. Albright was a worthy model for his younger brethren. His unassuming piety gave force to his public ministry, while the other gifts which he exercised won for him the respect and love of those to whom he ministered.

Good in all things, great in many, he owed his success most largely to his unusual talent of labor. He had learned how to labor and to wait in the school of necessity, and the habit thus formed became his solid stepping stone to acceptable service in the church. His forceful, yet gentle life, is an object lesson; for us. Showing, as it does that to him who wills, and fortifies that will with labor and perseverance there is nothing impossible; the career of Dr. Albright is at once an incentive to honorable ambition, and a chart to show the road to that which the faithful Christian minister holds dear in pursuit and achievement. To him the command of duty was a "Thus saith the Lord."

Dr. Albright was the church historian of the East, and for a number of years he served as historical secretary of our conference. In the Committee Roo mhe was tire'css in energy, impartial in consideration, just in judgment, and delightfui in social qualities. Had he lived it was his purpose to give much of his time in creating sentiment and securing funds for our Conference Preachers' Aid Fund.

Eut God has bidden the workman stop, and, with haste have men—great men—far and near hurried to do honor to his memory, and bring tribute to his worth.

These gracious words are uttered by men not strangers to him, but men who stood shoulder to shoulder with him in the work of the ministry, and the affairs of the church. Surely their praise must be just, their gariands unfading. I will let them speak now. Hear them. They are worthy of your attention. "He was a faithful preacher of the Gospel." "He was a good pastor." "A man of loyal heart." "He was one of the most able and efficient members of this Conference." "The most optimistic preacher in the Conference." This is praise indeed, my Brethren. His voice will be heard no more among us; but his spirit and works still are with us and will abide.

"I walked a mile with Pleasure;
She chattered all the way,
But left me none the wiser
For all she had to say.
I walked a mile with Sorrow,
And ne'er a word said she,
But oh, the things I learned from her,
When Sorrow walked with me!"

The report of the Stationing committee was read at the close of the service, in the Rajah Theater, on Sunday morning. It follows:
